

Cinema in the Square

FREE MOVIE NIGHT

We're Washington Square, not Hollywood, so you won't find a red carpet, searchlight or papparizzi but there will be plenty of popcorn. Forget about designer duds and dress yourselves casually for your neighborhood-sponsored Movie Night. The feature is the delightful animated movie, "Bolt", and there will be pre-movie activities including a dance exhibition and group lessons from dance champion Alex Ponce, and of course, cartoons for the kids in all of us.
