Grapes are the most noble and challenging of fruits.
Malcolm Dunn, Head Gardener to the 7th Viscount Powerscourt, c 1867
Quotes in 'Phylloxera' by Christy Campbell

After-dinner talk. Across the walnuts and the wine.
Alfred Lord Tennyson (1809-1892)
The Miller's Daughter

*Days of wine and roses laugh
and run away,
Like a child at play.*
Johnny Mercer (1909-1976)
Days of Wine and Roses

Wino Forever
Johnny Depp
(The tattoo once read 'Winona Forever')

*Bacchus we thank who gave us wine
Which warms the blood within our veins;
That nectar is itself divine.
The man who drinks not, yet attains
By godly grace to human rank
Would be an angel if he drank.*
Pierre Motin
French drinking song

*Give me women, wine and snuff
Until I cry out 'hold, enough!'
You may do so san objection
Till the day of resurrection;
For bless my beard then aye shall be
My beloved Trinity.*
John Keats

Women, Wine and Snuff
I like best the wine drunk at the cost of others.
Diogenes the Cynic

Here's to the corkscrew - a useful key to unlock the storehouse of wit, the treasury of laughter, the front door of fellowship, and the gate of pleasant folly.
W.E.P. French

*Please leave your glass for next year's event.

welcome to the Eighth Annual Wine Walk.

This event is designed to give you the opportunity to meet your neighbors in Washington Square and to introduce you to, or expand your knowledge of, the inspiring and delightful world of wine.

Tonight you will sample various award-winning wines from the Orange County Fair Wine Competition. You will also be treated to home winery selections from Award Winners John Willis of Poepenhoe Creek Winery, Rich & Robin McCormick of McCormick Winery and Cellars and Bob & Debra Miller of Miller winery..

Wine is a living product that changes with time and under varying circumstances to light, temperature and humidity. Wine has a long and complex history and has been honored and incorporated into art, literature and song throughout the ages. We have arranged for wine-knowledgeable members and friends of WSNA to pour the wines at each house and do their best to answer your wine related questions.

Your WSNA Board encourages you to have a lot of fun, learn a little, and drink responsibly during this event, and whenever you enjoy the pleasures of the vine.
